CONTESTS

Creative Writing Contest (May 30—July 15)
Upcoming second through twelfth graders may write a story about how you (or someone else) make the world a better place. Ideas could include writing about someone who helps the community, like a police officer or fire fighter, or writing about a time that you helped make someone smile. Use your imagination!

Coloring Contest (May 30—July 15)
Show off your artistic skills by coloring our picture! Prizes will be awarded in nine age divisions (from birth to 17). All entries will be displayed in the library.

Reduce, Reuse, and Recycle! (May 30—July 15)
Design a city park of any kind using recycled materials. Please keep your creation under twenty-four inches. Ideas might include a playground, a sporting field, or a swimming pool. Use your imagination!

Guess How Many (May 30—July 15)
See if you can guess how many bricks are in the container. One guess per person, please. The jar of bricks is located near the front entrance of the Cedartown Library!

Scavenger Hunt (May 30—July 22)
Solve the riddles and find the construction tool of the week around town. New clues will be released each Monday. Find all 6 to win a prize!

Parents Note: Children ages 12 & under MUST be accompanied to the library by an adult 16 years or older. Do not leave small children unattended in the library!
