Reading for Time

Track your reading time this summer and receive prizes! Kids and teens 18 and younger can register at shrls.readsquared.com at home or in the library. Logging your reading time on this website will earn you points toward your Summer Reading Goal! Points can also be earned by attending programs and workshops.

If you earn at least 2000 points this summer, you will be recognized at the Open House on July 23, be entered in the Grand Prize Drawing, and be able to place your name in your favorite book!

Contests

Creative Writing Contest  (May 29—July 14)  Upcoming sixth through twelfth graders may write a story about music that you love. It could be about your favorite band, your church choir, or even your piano lessons. Use your imagination!

Coloring Contest  (May 29—July 14)  Prizes will be awarded in nine age divisions (birth to 17). All entries will be displayed in the library.

Reduce, Reuse, and Recycle! (May 29—July 14)  Design a musical instrument made of recycled materials. Please keep your creation under twenty-four inches. We'll be particularly impressed if it actually plays or if you use rocks in your design. Use your imagination!

Guess How Many (May 29—July 14)  See if you can guess how many are in the container. One guess per person, please.

Scavenger Hunt (May 29—July 21)  Solve the riddles and find the instrument of the week around town. New clues will be released each Monday. Find all 6 to win a prize!

Volunteering

Are you 13 or older and interested in volunteering at your public library this summer? If so, please stop by the Cedartown Library and pick up a volunteer application! Call the library at 770-748-5644 for more information. We are only interested in those who are willing to commit to at least a 4 hour work day, once a week for an 8 week period. Family vacations can be worked around with prior notice. We will record your hours for National Honor Society, Beta Club, etc....

We need you, your community needs you! Be a volunteer hero and call us today!

Free Wii Time

Every Tuesday from 2 - 5 PM during the Summer Reading Program, the Library’s Wii will be set up in the meeting room for any teens who want to come play! Our games include: Just Dance 2, Mario Party 8, Wii Sports, and Guitar Hero!
