Advanced Academic Pathways

English Language Arts:
- Students need to earn four units of credit in English language arts; and
- The student’s chosen English language arts pathway will include at least one Advanced Placement course in English or one postsecondary enrollment course that fulfills a core graduation requirement in English Language Arts; and
- Students need to complete two units of sequential course credit in one world language.

Mathematics:
- Students need to earn four units of credit in mathematics; and
- The student’s chosen mathematics pathway will include at least one Advanced Placement course in mathematics or one postsecondary course that fulfills a core graduation requirement in mathematics; and
- Students need to complete two units of sequential course credit in one world language.

Science:
- Students need to earn four units of credit in science; and
- The student’s chosen science pathway will include at least one Advanced Placement course in science or one postsecondary course that fulfills a core graduation requirement in science; and
- Students need to complete two units of sequential course credit in one world language.

Social Studies:
- Students need to earn four units of credit in social studies; and
- The student’s chosen social studies pathway will include at least one Advanced Placement course in social studies or one postsecondary course that fulfills a core graduation requirement in social studies; and
- Students need to complete two units of sequential course credit in one world language.