What Do You Do?

Level E

by Amy Bihn

Illustrated by Alex Wisehart
Every day, Ruby sees her mom leave for work. She wears a suit. She takes a briefcase. What does Ruby's mom do? Where does Ruby's mom go?
When Ruby's mom gets home, Ruby asks, "Mom, what do you do?" Ruby's mom says, "I work with a lot of people. I help people get money. I work in a bank."
Ruby’s mom also says that she works to earn money. She earns money so they can buy a house, clothes and food.
Every day, Lee sees his dad leave for work. He wears a uniform. He takes a lunch box. What does Lee's dad do? Where does Lee's dad go?
When Lee’s dad gets home, Lee asks, “Dad, what do you do?” Lee’s dad says, “I work with a lot of people. I use machines. I work in a factory.”
Lee’s dad also says that he works to earn money. He earns money so they can buy a house, clothes and food.
Every day, Tracy sees her dad leave for work. He wears jeans and a T-shirt. He wears a tool belt. What does Tracy’s dad do? Where does Tracy’s dad go?
When Tracy’s dad gets home, Tracy asks, “Dad, what do you do?” Tracy’s dad says, “I work for a lot of people. I help build houses. I am a construction worker.”
Tracy’s dad also says that he works to earn money. He earns money so they can buy a house, clothes and food.
People have different jobs. People wear different clothes to work. What job does your mom or dad do?
